

Agreement bars layoffs at GC plant

By GEORGEANN McGEE
of the Press-Record

Granite City Wastewater Treatment Plant employees were successfully in keeping, at least for the present, a 2 percent wage increase despite an effort by the staff to vote by seniority in an effort to avert $9-per-quarter higher residential treatment charges.

The Granite City Council Tuesday accepted an agreement with Local 525, International Union of Operating Engineers, that no layoffs will occur, except by mutual agreement between the union and city and then only for "just reasons."

The return of the union gave up a previous agreement mandating that the plant be staffed by at least 26 employees. The new memorandum will allow attrition reductions through retirements and resignations.

The new agreement does not include any pay increases.

In a vote which followed a discussion halted by Mayor Paul Schuler, the mayor cast the winning vote for the agreement when the aldermen were 7-4, one vote short of a council majority. Three aldermen were absent.

Alderman Paul Fisk, chairman of the negotiating committee, told the aldermen that he recommended the agreement after holding weeks of intensive talks with the union. If the council had not approved the agreement, Fisk said, then the issue would have gone into arbitration.

Alderman Casmer Skubish, a member of the negotiating committee, said no other union in the city has made a deal with the city and the city had been successful in eliminating the table in that department.

"Some of those employees were scared they'd lose their jobs," Skubish said. "The document was valuable to them."

Two of the three members of the treatment plant committee — Alderman Warren Decatur and Jake Varadian — who proposed the seven man cut and hopes of lessening an expected residential rate hike, voted against the agreement.

Varadian said he would have preferred the agreement to have been publicly discussed prior to the council vote to the aldermen "backstage" before a final council vote. This way, said Varadian, "There is going to have to be a substantial rate increase."

Tuesday, Varadian said the plant's

Plant employees agree to freezing wages this year

1982-83 budget is $2.5 million with only $1.4 million in projected income.

In January, City Comptroller Joseph Miklovic asked aldermen to consider an immediate $8.89-per-quarter residential fee and a deferral of industrial charges to the city over a two-year period, to pay back plant bonding reserve funds and the more than $300,000 debt the plant owes the city.

Allstate Insurance Co., which purchased $35,000 of the plant's bonds, said that, with the exception of 1972, "these bonds have been in technical default."

"The bonding company is calling Joe [Miklovic] every day," Decatur said. Decatur added, "although the bonding company has been paid, reserves for the bonds required by the original bond agreement have been ignored. Those accounts were to include depreciation and reserve funds."

Before the week is out, the aldermen will be asked to send a letter to the bonding company with the new funding recommendation of their committee.

"This $9 is a bitter pill to swallow... it isn't going to be easy for alderman," said Decatur, who contended that he does not think residents will readily accept the large increase per quarter, from $15 each three months to $22.

He said his committee may avoid the $9 increase and, instead, go back to its prior proposal of a $4.50 raise and a seven man layoff, despite the recent memorandum with the union.

"I think the people on the council should have known we had three aldermen missing [Tuesday]."

The aldermen voted against the agreement, said that the no layoffs with the "just reasons" clause seems the hardest part to accept. "They [the sewage plant employees] are going to dictate to us," contended Alderman Michael Morrissey, who voted no.

"This item means it is conceivable to lay off employees without the agreement of the union," stated Plant Superintendent Terrence McMillan in a memo to the mayor and city council.

McMillan was never involved in the negotiations, according to Decatur. Nor was McMillan asked for his opinion on the council floor Tuesday.

In his memo, McMillan suggested several changes in the agreement, including a provision which would give employees who bid a job a year to prove that they have the ability to hold the new position. "One year proving period is too long," McMillan wrote. "It needs to be reduced to something much shorter."

"It hasn't been easy to negotiate because we haven't had anything to give them to expect people not to look for job security," said Alderman Perjak, a member of the negotiating team.

Mayor Paul Schuler said that if the negotiations agreement was based on a one to 10 rating system, the new agreement was a "good eight or nine."

"They're not going to give up everything at once," the mayor said.

Modruck, who accepted the new agreement, said, "I think everyone off" who wanted to discuss the agreement before the vote. "You're yelling roll call... roll call."

Fisk said that other concessions may be made in exchange for no layoffs are one-man weekend shifts, time off in place of overtime, making daily replacement of absent workers optional.

Fisk said the no layoffs clause in the sewage treatment plant staff agreement does not affect possible layoffs in other city departments.

St. Elizabeth eyes bluffs

Expansion of St. Elizabeth Medical Center's regional offerings to the Edwardsville area was announced today by Sister Mary Thomas, president of St. Elizabeth, who said that the medical center has acquired a 30-acre tract of land on Route 157 in Edwardsville.

Steve Hunter, vice-president in charge of marketing and planning for St. Elizabeth Medical Center, explained that the medical center has been studying ways to expand health care services in the Illinois portion of the metropolitan area for some time. "We have conducted telephone and demographic surveys of the area to determine health care needs," he said. "An acre of land in Edwardsville already is part of our service area, studies show that there is a need for additional services."

"Expansion of our services in the area will reinforce St. Elizabeth Medical Center's financial strength by increasing the utilization of our services and will help assure the medical center's viability," he said.

"No firm plans have been made for development of the land," Sister Mary Thomas said. However, she stressed the point that this land acquisition does not mean that the medical center is considering relocation.

Venice dropping GC ambulances?

By MICK STRANGE
of the Press-Record

Ambulance service for residents of Venice was a major topic of concern at the Tuesday night meeting of the Venice City Council.

"As everyone here knows, the cost of the Granite City ambulance service has always been expensive for the city and it now is higher," Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols said at the Tuesday meeting.

"We can't keep up with these astronomical costs and Granite City is not under a consistent rule in this area," Echols said.

Echols contended that a Granite City man was injured in Venice and the Granite City ambulance transported him. Venice was billed for the call, although the man was a Venice resident. This has happened before, Echols stated.

Brawley new Venice clerk

By MICK STRANGE
of the Press-Record

The Venice City Council Tuesday night unanimously approved the appointment of Ralph D. "Dewey" Brawley as city clerk. The appointment was made by Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols.

Brawley will fill the remaining three-year term of Dale Georgeff, who moved out of town about a month ago.

Echols also appointed Howard Silas of Venice as a member of the Tri-City Regional Port District. The port appointment does not require council vote.

Brawley was serving as Venice police chief on May 16, 1979, after serving on the Venice police force for nearly 27 years.

The retired chief was born in Winona,

He joined the police force part time in 1962 and in May 1963 was promoted to police officer. In July 1965 he became assistant chief of police on July 21, 1967, and was appointed chief by the late Mayor John E. Lee Jr. on Sept. 1, 1967, replacing Chief John Essington, who then moved to Silas, 1221 Main St., Venice, was born in Memphis Tenn., but has resided in the area for nearly his entire life.

He was educated at the former Dunbar elementary and high school and Northern Illinois University, Macomb.

Silas is a member of Mount Nebo, Babbitt Ranch and of American Legion Post 79. He also has been active with the Newport Homecoming Association.

He and his wife, Joan, have two children, Carla and Corey.

In other business, Echols told the council that he will contact the county clerk about the possibility of

GC, county trimming rates to attract Glen Carbon sewers

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Editor

It's the final round in the boxing bout and the match seems even. It will be up to the judges to determine the winner and there is a general air of suspense.

The combatants are the city of Edwardsville and the Madison County Special Sewer District One. They are fighting for a prize — the sewer service for approximately 2,000 homes in the city of Edwardsville.

That was the topic of a special meeting between county officials, Glen Carbon representatives and Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler Tuesday morning in the sewer district's new office in Edwardsville.

The score is close, according to David Brammeier, a trustee of Glen Carbon and chairman of the village's sewer committee, who represented Glen Carbon Village Board Chairman Ron Fink at the meeting.

"Now they want to assess the city sewer a 7 percent held before the cost is added to raising the charge to $2 a call and $2 a mile. This will make an ambulance run by the Granite City service costing more than $200 for a single call."

At the same meeting now with Officer's (Officer Funeral Home) of East St. Louis, which may be able to offer the service at half the Granite City cost. He stated that not all of the particulars have been ironed out, but Officer may station an ambulance in Venice, if an agreement can be reached.

"I also am going to talk to the Madison ambulance service, as a backup, but we have not talked to them yet. There are a lot of particulars to be ironed out, but we have to do something soon."

Echols said he is likely to call for a special meeting of the city council, if needed, when the particulars are all worked out. According to Echols, "If we go with Granite City, there must be a 30-day notice given Granite City if Venice chooses to discontinue use of Granite City's ambulances, the mayor noted.

In further discussion, Mayor Echols said, "I have just received word that the federal government under the U.S. Department of Commerce, Community Affairs Division, is releasing a large amount of money for health and welfare services."

"According to what I understand, the state of Illinois will be given about $33 million to be distributed on a basis of the federal Clean Air Act implementation is Jan. 1, 1983, which may not leave enough time for the village to connect to either sewer system."

On the other hand, as Echols noted Tuesday, the issue of where Glen Carbon is to go for secondary sewage sewer use charges for Glen Carbon residents may make the difference whether the village turns to Edwardsville, which is closer, or Special Sewer Area One, for treatment. Currently, Edwardsville is proposing charging Glen Carbon approximately 45 cents per 1,000 gallons of flow for operation and maintenance of the sewer system. The county first proposed charging 68 cents per 1,000 gallons for operation and maintenance of the sewers, but officials are attempting to trim that figure about 47 cents. Echols said the special sewer district's proposal as close as possible to the Edwardsville proposal.

Granite City, which treats the sewage from the county sewers, also is expected to make concessions to try to attract Glen Carbon residents as low as possible.

"We are looking for a customer. This would open up another avenue for new customers where there are not many avenues left," according to Mayor Paul Schuler.

Officials at the sewer district expressed hope that the city will agree to offer to treat Glen Carbon's sewage for the

$2.6 million transit budget includes minibuses, lift vans

By PAIGE ST. JOHN

Five months into its fiscal year, the Madison County Transit District has an approved budget for 1982. The $2.6 million document was passed at the board's meeting Tuesday.

The budget, consisting of a single sheet, is actually more an outline than anything else. It conforms to the various expenditure categories suggested in a newly-completed financial audit of the transit district.

"The audit, consisting of a single sheet, is actually more an outline than anything else. It conforms to the various expenditure categories suggested in a newly-completed financial audit of the transit district."

"The audit was done before we could approve our budget," said Transit Manager Susan Schold.

"They recommended to us to wait and follow their guidelines for listing expenditures."

The audit, conducted by Scheffel & Company, gives the transit district a clean bill of financial health.

The auditor's only recommendation was that the district adequately bond its members handling district funds.

"I'd be a prudent business man to make, since you're dealing with so much money," added Robert Stille, told the board Tuesday. Later in the meeting, the board decided to seek bonding of its treasurer, Bob Stille, for $1 million.

After the auditor's report, the board moved quickly to the budget. There was little discussion, except for a comment by Paul Schulz, a committee chair, "This is the simplest budget I've ever seen for $2.6 million."

It was noted that the budget can be amended if necessary later on in the year. Most likely to change the future is the amount estimated to be generated by sales tax revenues.

A total of $2.58 million is expected through June, but that could be less, Susan Schold said. Tax revenues for the first two months of this year have already been reported and are lower than expected.

Another $40,000 is expected to be earned in interest, bringing the total an-estimated resources of the transit district to $2.6 million in 1982.

Total expenditures for the year are expected to be $1.68 million. The unspent $916,000 is to be put into reserves.

The budget of $1.3 million is expected to go to the Bi-State Development Agency for its bus services, and $250,000 has been earmarked for a supplementary paratransit program the board hopes to initiate by June.

Fourteen agencies in the county have applied to the transit district to receive paratransit money to expand their own transportation projects. The services range from senior citizen buses to vans for the handicapped.

But because of the board's next meeting, the funding requests will be individually examined and recommendations to the board developed. Action on the proposals is expected to be taken at the district's May 27 meeting.

Board Chairman Bill Haine said paratransit services include Sunday Bible study at 9:45 a.m., worship at 10:45 a.m., life training at 6:15 p.m., and evening services at 7 o'clock.

Bible study sessions also are held at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Rev. Musatius said the highest attendance in the history of Central Baptist Church's "Sunday School Big Day" held April 25, when a number of visitors also was present to see a demonstration by the karate team from Baptist Bible College.

A successful rally day was conducted as part of a Spring Sunday School Drive, based on the theme—"with God all things are possible."

Named public information officer for state police

Captain Laimutis A. Nargelunas, commander of Illinois State Police District 11, has announced that Trooper David J. Jung, 38, has been named public information officer for the district. He will work with the present public information officer, Trooper James G. Gallo.

Jung will serve as the district's liaison to area news media. He will provide information and educational Trooper Jung joined the Illinois State Police in 1967. Upon graduation from the State Police Academy, he was assigned to District 14 at Macomb. He transferred to District 11 in 1968.

A 1968 graduate of Macomb Community High School, Jung attended Belleville Area College. Before joining the Illinois State Police, he was a police officer in Macomb.

David and his wife, Mary, reside in Mascoutah. They have a son, Eugene 17, and two daughters, Leslie 14, and Cathy 11.

VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH. Mrs. Kathi Watters, a volunteer at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, was named volunteer of the month recently. She was chosen from volunteers nominated throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area. Katie Bell, representative of Voluntary Action Center, Greater St. Louis Area United Way, left, presents a certificate to Sister Mary Thomas, president of St. Elizabeth's Medical Center, while Mrs. Watters looks on. Mrs. Watters, who serves two days a week in the maternity department, has volunteered more than 1,700 hours to SEMC in the last four and one-half years.

Month honors seniors

Peg R. Blaser, director of the Illinois Department on Aging, joins Governor James R. Thompson in proclaiming May as Older Americans Month in Illinois. The governor's proclamation coincided with the National Older Americans Month observance.

The governor's proclamation states that "Older Americans Month is the time to honor older Americans for their achievements, to promote better opportunities for all older Americans, and to strengthen efforts to serve the elderly."

According to Director Blaser, this year's theme for Older American's Month is "Aging Together," which suggests the need to promote closer links among the generations of young middle-aged and older Americans to strengthen action among groups of all ages in meeting the challenges ahead.

"Many of those challenges have been addressed in the

"Aging Agenda for Illinois in the '80's," said Blaser. "This is a document compiled by the Illinois Department on Aging, which contains specific recommendations for improving the lives of senior citizens in the coming decade."

Other highlights of Older Americans Month, 1982, include National Nursing Home Week, May 9-15; Senior Center Week, May 9-16, and Illinois Health Fair Week, May 8-15.

Senior citizen groups throughout the Aging Network in Illinois have scheduled special activities to observe the observance of the designated weeks and of Older Americans Month.

"Many of those challenges have been addressed in the

Littering-like throwing money out the car window

It's the season when the winter-wracked motorist sets out to enjoy the springtime scenery along the open road.

But all too often, he doesn't find only flowers and flora-and-fauna along the roadside.

It's litter. All kinds of litter. Cars, Car Hoods, Food sacks, Auto Jacks. The list is limitless. Lots of the litter, it seems, is discarded by the motorists who regard the roadside as a free dumping ground.

"It's not free, however,"

Secretary of Transportation John D. Kramer pointed out. "It costs the state an average of $2 million a year in labor and equipment to clean it up," he said.

Although there are no statistics available, he said, trash is tossed on the state's roadways, the agency with state highways in its jurisdiction.

That cost, he said, is in

Ainad Spring Ceremonial to be May 15

Potentate Mark Moreton, head of the nearly 9,000 nobles of Ainad Temple, has chosen Saturday, May 15, as the day for the Temple Spring Ceremonial when new nobles will be created from all over Southern Illinois.

More than 200 candidates are expected to be at the Temple in East St. Louis at 7:30 a.m. that morning and will be present visiting the St. Louis Shriners Hospital. The event will end about 7 p.m. after a dinner at the temple.

The ceremonial will honor John Traube, a 32-year member of Ainad who has headed the dinner staff for many of those years.

Dr. Hommerl of Granite City, temple director, will be assisted by Warren Decatur and many of the temple members will take part in the event in the evening's ceremonies.

Ainad serves all of Southern Illinois from Route 67 south, and has 41 Shrine clubs as well as 40 uniformed units. Ainad sent 368 children to the hospital last year for care.

Rabies clinics set Saturday

The inoculation team will be from the Madison City Garage from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Saturday and at the Pontoon Beach Village Hall on Route 111 from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

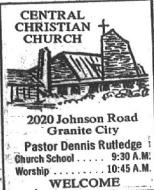

The final clinic will be Saturday, May 22, at the Granite City Humane Shelter off Missouri Avenue in West Granite City from 1 to 4 p.m.

Brooks vice-president of Franklin Life Co.

Former Granite City resident John E. Brooks has been elected vice-president of the Franklin Agency Department of the Franklin Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Ill.

A former teacher and coach at Granite City schools, Brooks first joined the Franklin in 1971 as a member of the Bill Terrel Agency in Granite City. In his first nine months as a company associate, he produced a personal sales total that ranked 73rd out of 4,000 Franklin associates. He also qualified for four of the company's top 100 sales accomplishments — the Key Club, Diplomat Club, 100 Million Club and the Franklin Million Dollar Conference.

During 1979, his first full year in the insurance business, Brooks ranked second in the company for sales volume and fourth nationally in sales growth and lengthened his list of accomplishments with 60 Club and two $100 Million Club qualifications. His efforts resulted in one of the company's highest honors: Associate of the Year for 1979.

In

1980, Brooks was promoted to district manager for the Granite City area. While continuing his personal sales accomplishments (more than 100% of sales volume and $100,000 of new sales premium), he recruited and trained an agency sales team. As a result, he was the recipient of yet another national honor: Rookie of the Year.

In

January, 1981, Brooks

his wife, Cheryl, and their two daughters moved to Springfield, where he accepted the position of vice-president of agencies at the Franklin Life home office. While working closely with Franklin sales and marketing associates throughout the United States, he was invited to be a guest speaker at two of the company's 1981 sales conventions.

Brooks is the son of Mrs. Gladys Brooks of Granite City and the late Fred Brooks. His wife, Cheryl, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Guth, also of Granite City.

Checking accounts for newly married

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK

Home Economics Adviser
If you're planning a June wedding, you also may be planning to establish a joint checking account as part of the many preliminaries to your new life.

Yet, many couples are choosing to retain separate accounts and even more are maintaining joint accounts as well as individual accounts.

Many women are selecting these options so they can establish their own credit as individuals by proving their ability to manage their own funds.

This is one reason why you hardly ever see a woman holding a joint account, even joint account checks, as "Mrs. John Doe." Today, she almost always uses "Mary Doe" instead. A few years ago, that wasn't the case.

If you open joint accounts, it's important that both first names appear on the account checks in case one spouse dies.

Ordinarily, a checking account in the name of the deceased would have to be probated before the survivor could write checks on the account. That process can take up to six months or longer.

Although many couples are beginning to choose alternatives, the joint account remains popular. It can lead to confusion, since the couple must pay only one service charge.

Before making a final decision on establishing a joint account, a couple should decide exactly how the account will be maintained.

The couple should decide if one checkbook will be used or if each person will carry a set of checks. By establishing such procedures before opening the account, a couple can eliminate a lot of potential problems for themselves and for the bank.

Most couples find it is easier to carry only one checkbook and trade it between spouses because it simplifies record keeping.

It's possible to use two books and keep the records straight, but a couple is a lot more likely to run into trouble and lose track of some checks. That could cause overdrafts and keep track of their balances is by "dividing" the actual balance of the account and having each spouse write checks only against their portion. This method makes each spouse responsible for his or her partial balance. No matter what kind of arrangement is used, record-keeping is doubly important for those with joint accounts because the chance for error is multiplied when two people are entering figures and balancing the account. It's a good idea to go with a checking account before a tip will be helpful — to avoid bookkeeping problems, record the checks and amounts and also figure the remaining balance at the time they are written.

Carrying around checks without a register and relying on memory is asking for trouble. When you know exactly how much money you have spent, you know how much you have left, so you are less likely to overdraw the account.

Some commercial banks now offer "free" checking accounts to those who maintain a required minimum balance. Other banks even offer new customers free checking accounts with no required minimum balance.

It's a wise shop around and compare to see exactly what type of accounts are available and meet your needs.

Shots for travel overseas

By MARY RICHARDS

Illinois Department of Public HealthWill this be the year that you take a trip abroad or go on a Caribbean cruise?If it is to be your first vacation in foreign countries, you probably have questions related solely to your health — such as what vaccinations you need.While vaccination requirements are fewer than in past years, there are still some shots that are necessary for certain countries or under certain circumstances, such as an epidemic in the country
you're planning to visit.The Centers for Disease Control, a federal agency, keep worldwide records on communicable diseases.
These officials, in turn, inform state and local health departments and physicians who vaccinate.Most health departments or family doctors can give you the shots and a validated certificate. Be sure to get this validation, or the quarantine authorities may require that you be revaccinated or even quarantined.No vaccinations are required to travel
from the United States to any country in Europe.Certain vaccinations are required by some countries
in Africa, Asia and South America. And if you should be traveling from one foreign country to another,
you may have to have certain vaccinations.The World Health Organization declared theworld free of smallpox a year ago, but two countries,
Chad in Africa and Democratic Kampuchea —
formerly called Cambodia — still require the vaccination.However, a doctor will give you a written statement indicating that a smallpox vaccination is contraindicated for health reasons.The risk of a traveler getting smallpox is now zero,
so a vaccination is always more dangerous.Those countries that have outbreaks of diseases, such as cholera, Dengue fever, or African sleeping sickness, usually experience such outbreaks in the back country.The risk for the international traveler who stays in modern hotels and in or near modern cities is small:All travelers should take precautions when they're in a country where non-quarantinable diseases
exist. Malaria, for example, occurs frequently in certain areas of Asia, Africa,
Central and South America.
You should avoid exposure to mosquitoes by sleeping inside well-screened areas or under mosquito netting.
There is an anti-malarial medication, so if you're going to be in a country
where malaria is a problem,
you should get a prescription,
have it filled before leaving home and start taking the medicine at the proper time, before you arrive in the malarious area.There are some diseases that become more rare, or at least very unusual, due tovaccinations in the U.S., but which are still a problem in some other lands.These include cholera, typhoid, poliomyelitis and measles.Registration for BAC is underwayRegistration is underway for the summer and fall 1982
semesters at Belleville Area

Henkhaus proposes cutting his budget 8%

By ED GURNEY
Madison County Treasurer
Mick Henkhaus presented proposals Monday which he said would reduce the budget
in his office by eight percent
next year.

The $37,000 saving would be achieved by reducing the payroll of an employee who retired, by switching another worker from full- to part-time, and by saving postage

through mailing receipts
for small payments.

Henkhaus presented his plan to the County Board's finance committee, which is studying ways to reduce expenses by 8 percent.

The treasurer said the
further reductions are necessary. Henkhaus said,
he favors cutting hours evenly among 20 of his employees—all but his five deputies.

"If I had to come up with the other four percent, that's what it would be—layoffs," Henkhaus said.

The treasurer said the
treasurer's office would make only one tax billing.
Taxpayers would send in their bills with their first and second installments.
Those cancelled
checks would be their receipts, Henkhaus said.

He explained that of the 106,000 tax bills, about 62,000
go directly to individuals,
rather than financial institutions. Of those, 90 to 90 percent pay a first installment by mail. The treasurer's office

then mails back the bills
to the people for their second installment, and the treasurer's office makes a third mailing to return the receipts.

Chairman Bill Little of Alton said the full board will be asked to endorse the proposal to change the law.

Henkhaus says to know that he has already saved the county money since he was elected four years ago.

"I reduced the staff four years ago when I wasn't really paying to buy myself
a raise," he said. The size of the staff is down 24 percent since he came into office, he said.

Henkhaus fired two people
because he became treasurer

because he did not think the positions were necessary.

That may have cost him
some labor support, but he easily won back the support in the March 1982 primary.

Salaries in that period are up $1 percent, but the treasurer's budget is only up 10 percent. Henkhaus said, last year he increased the amount of interest earned on funds in the county general fund by 49 percent.

In a business Monday,
the committee—

Heard Chief Circuit
Judge Joseph Barr say that the only significant way to save money in the county system appears to be to get rid of the way outside attorneys are hired for cases in which the public defender cannot be used because of a conflict.

Barr said several attorneys could be hired on a retainer for that work. Much more is being spent this year for such work than has been budgeted, the judge said.

Another possibility is dividing the public defender's office in half in cases in which more than one person must be represented,

he said.

Henkhaus fired two people
because he became treasurer

because he did not think the computer on a five-month trial basis.

Some of the equipment is $72 a month.

Henkhaus said the machine is expected to greatly reduce the amount of time necessary to stuff tax bills. The machine is connected to the county's computer and can stuff envelopes as fast as the bills are printed, he said.

Henkhaus said such a machine could be purchased if his office and other county departments decide it is useful.

The purchase price is uncertain but is believed to be between $60,000 and $70,000.

Administrative Assistant
Mary Kane said.

She said the equipment
would not be feasible for just the treasurer's office. There would be 10 to 15 different users, including the jury
commission, sewer bills,
animal control, and real estate information, she said, and then responding to those calls.

In addition, she feels it would be safe for a single person to hold a

checkbook.

Henkhaus said he is considering

the proposal for the human employees to rotate day
and evening shifts.

"One guy cannot do it,"

she said, referring to the lone holder attending the shelter, receiving

residents' complaints,
and real estate information.

Area should work to attract Glen Carbon's business

At a time when Granite City is strapped for money, an opportunity to add approximately $104,000 to the city's annual income with very little extra expense should be welcome news and the city should do everything in its power to grasp onto that kind of income.

The "golden opportunity" comes in the form of a proposal by the Madison County Special Sewer District to add Glen Carbon to the sewer district. Since all the sewage from the several parts of Newfeld, Chouteau and Venice townships is treated at the Granite City primary and secondary treatment plants, additional sewage from Glen Carbon would translate into additional sewage at the giant treatment facilities and additional treatment fees into the city's pocket.

Glen Carbon officials estimate that the sewers could be put into operation by the fall of 1983 and could be in full use, with about $100,000 Glen Carbon tapped on, by July, 1984.

If the Granite City Council will agree to allow Glen Carbon residents to pay the same $18 per quarter as city residents, another $104,000 could be generated by the treatment plant with very little increase in expenses.

As we understand it, that extra volume could easily be handled by the giant treatment facility here and few if any extra money would be involved. The extra costs would be in extra chemicals and in billing costs.

The whole "deal" hangs by a thread. In order to convince Glen Carbon and the Environment Protection Agency that the "good-Giles" can treat its sewage cleaner than Edwardsville, this area is going to have to adapt the attitude of a business bidding for a contract.

Edwardsville also is actively soliciting Glen Carbon's business and Edwardsville has some competitive advantages. It is closer to Glen Carbon, meaning that a much shorter line would have to be installed to connect the village's sewers with Edwardsville's, and that translates into lower costs for Glen Carbon residents.

Also, Edwardsville is "shooting" Glen Carbon a lower monthly fee for operation and maintenance of the sewer lines than the current fees being discussed in the Quigley.

If this area is to convince Glen Carbon and the EPA that the city's regional plant at the Granite City Army Industrial Environmental Project is cleaner than Edwardsville, this area is going to have to agree to have its sewage treated by Granite City.

Any change, at this time, in the rate Granite City charges its residents for sewage treatment would have to be reflected in the proposal for Glen Carbon, who may give Edwardsville the edge in agreeing to have its sewage treated by Granite City.

We understand Granite City's position and the very real possibility that treatment fees will have to be raised if the treatment plant can be self-sustaining, but the possibility of increased revenue from Glen Carbon can be considered in the discussions over the treatment rates.

All in all, it is time for Granite City and county officials to take their pencils and go to work to give Glen Carbon the most attractive possible package. If this area fails, Edwardsville is waiting in the wings to claim the prize.

Join Cook County in banning drug paraphernalia sale

The Cook County Board on Monday banned sale and possession of drug paraphernalia, effective next month. State's Attorney Don Weber thinks Madison County should do the same, and we agree.

A snag developed here Monday when state Sen. James Stupak opted for delay until a similar measure moves through the Illinois legislature.

We would prefer to see this county and its municipalities move ahead with appropriate ordinances, without waiting for Springfield action.

The current General Assembly session does not end until June 30, and the governor undoubtedly has additional months to sign or veto the various bills. Paraphernalia legislation may or may not pass, and even if passed, it would be subject to veto or revision by the governor. Meanwhile, time moves on and more and more drug abuses occur, harming local and Madison County residents.

The new Cook County ordinance is expected to affect Chicago and many of its suburbs. County Board President George Dunne, sponsor originally proposed the ban apply only to those areas of the city not served by the Board Member Bernard Carey, who is trying to unseat Dunne in the Nov. 2 election, succeeded in amending it to include the entire county. Anyone convicted of possession of paraphernalia in Cook County will face a much stiffer jail sentence and a fine of up to $500. Conviction for manufacture or delivery of drug paraphernalia will carry fines of up to $1,000, and up to a year in jail. Anyone 18 years of age or older who does not purchase a minor will face a fine of up to $10,000 and as much as three years behind prison bars.

The Cook County ordinance specifically bars the sale of devices for producing, ingesting or injecting controlled substances. It makes little sense for Madison County and its cities and villages to enact a similar law or perhaps one adapted from the wording of Illinois Senate Bill 1305.

Disagree on bi-county van pooling

By PAIGE ST. JOHN
Madison County has a good thing going with its new van pooling service, and St. Clair County wants a piece of the action.

Glen Carbon Mayor Paul Schuler would just as soon not let that happen.

Schuler, a member of the Madison County Transit District board, spoke out at the board's meeting Tuesday to the effect that the rest of the transit district sub-contracting its van pool service to St. Clair County.

Under the proposal, the service provided by Van Pool Services, Inc., to Madison County would be extended to St. Clair County.

St. Clair would have to pay for the privilege, but would not be burdened with the expense of setting up and maintaining its own van pool program.

Madison County transit board chairman Bill Haine said he favors the idea and thinks it "goes without saying" that it makes sense for the people of Madison County.

"We're in the business of providing service for Madison County. Period," he said.

Schuler said he is afraid that St. Clair County may not pay for its share of the service, and that it may take Madison County for a "free ride."

"I'm against any partnership with St. Clair County," Schuler said.

"Every deal that Madison County or a portion of Madison County has entered into with St. Clair County has been at the expense of the local community," he said.

I think we have to be careful with it, but I think we are," said Haine.

Urban League dinner May 20

The Madison County Urban League is celebrating its 10th anniversary on Thursday, May 20 with a dinner at the Washington Ballroom, 19th Street and Edison Avenue. The event will celebrate the agency's five year history of social service delivery to Madison County entity.

Bill Wilkerson of KMOX radio is the featured speaker at the dinner. Wilkerson is also a knowledgeable and enthusiastic sports reporter with a variety of program involvements. He will speak on "Urban League: the New Strategies for Changing Times."

Following a report from Executive Director Willie F. Walker, area industries will be recognized for five years of support to the agency in its efforts to improve social conditions in Madison County. Those to receive awards are the Granite City Steel division of National Steel Corp., Laclede Steel, Monsanto, Olin Corp., and Penney's.

Awards of recognition will be presented to present and former board members who served as original incorporators in the establishment of the agency.

A musical interlude will be provided by the male chorus of Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church of Vicksburg, who will be accompanied in their selections by Mrs. Hilda James.

The social hour begins at 6 p.m. and dinner will be served promptly at 7. Donations are $12.50 a person and the public is being invited.

Blackburn to cost $4,500 next year

The cost of education is going up all over the country and Blackburn College of Education, Inc. will retain a teaching faculty and enhance the quality of student life on campus.

"We will continue to do our best to keep costs down even in an inflationary climate, but we cannot compromise on the quality of education or student life, because they are our reasons for existence," Mr. Stupak said.

The cost of tuition, room and board and fees will be $4,500 for the 1982-83 school year. The tuition under a 10 percent increase in charges, which is below that of most colleges and universities. "In dollar amounts our increase is less than 10 percent compared to the 15 to 20 percent increase other private colleges and universities are making," said Blackburn College President John Stupak.

Mr. Stupak noted that, in addition to meeting inflationary demands, the budget would provide for

Willing Workers hear Wolf

U.S. Senator Charles H. Percy of Illinois, independent B. J. Davis and the Granite City school district for local interests in U.S. foreign policy.

Sen. Percy, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, has written to Supt. Davis, noting that "I understand that Alan Safran of my staff met with the foreign service chief led by Philip R. Shatto in Washington April 7.

The Willing Workers of the laid-off worker and the laid-off worker are not going to go away over night," Rep. Wolf said, "but the legislature in its wisdom has chosen to do something to combat unemployment and new businesses to Illinois."

Guests at the meeting included Barbara Lape, of the University of Missouri Extension Service. She wants to form an organization similar to the Willing Workers in Union, Illinois, where unemployment is 17 percent.

Volunteers were asked to help with improvements in and around the Jaycees hall. Job leads and information were checked and an open forum was held on topics to be covered in future meetings.

The next meeting will be May 15 at 10 a.m. at the Jaycees hall on Poplar Street. Guest speaker will be Alan Richardson, Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce executive vice-president.

"I commend Mr. Shatto for his involvement and we will offer my encouragement to the community unit school district for its support of such a worthwhile program," the senator concluded.

Van Pool Services, Inc., is still in the process of setting up van pools with area employers and employees. Van are expected to be available for the rider-needed service and actual operations could begin some time later this month, it was said.

Citizen transit board member Susan Blanckhurst agreed, saying she thinks "Madison County should be the leader and not the follower" in providing van pool services to area residents.

Because of the arguments raised at Tuesday's meeting, the transit board agreed to invite a representative of the St. Clair County transit board to its next meeting to discuss the extension of the van pool service.

The van pool service provides a volunteer driver with complete use of the van, on the agreement he picks up and delivers the other riders in his van pool. The riders pay their share of the van's operating costs, usually about $40 per month.

Fluoridation suit took 14 years

To the Editor:

Lincoln said, "Let the people know the truth and the country will be free." That is the Illinois Public Health Service's position on fluoridation in the cities of Grand Rapids and Newburgh in February 1945.

Numerous research reports and books are available, and many are a matter of public record in our court proceedings.

After ten weeks of highly scientific testimony, Judge Ronald Niemann, of Saline, Illinois, ruled that the matter of water fluoridation law of Illinois is unconstitutional.

This is the first time in the history of the U.S. that a fluoridation suit has been ruled unconstitutional in the courts.

Numerous lawsuits have been filed against cities on this same issue. The last relatively favorable decision is lower court only to have them reversed on appeal. Did you ever wonder why?

"I understand that the people could not afford to pay for an appeal, as they were already paying for both sides of the litigation?"

"Millions of our tax dollars have been spent on the promotion of fluoridation, directly or indirectly, cleverly disguised under the name of 'health' while we are also being led into our people to let the people know the truth."

Many doctors and dentists who have innocently parroted the claims made by the ADA, AMA and Public Health Service is: "It is better to have a few redheads than to have a few bald heads." Those who have been duped, than to be accomplice in what could well be defined as the crime of the century."

Many in both of these professions have already admitted this after finding out the truth.

The numerous organizations who have allowed their names to be used as endorsers have also contributed unknowingly to this crime.

In order to save their good name and reputation, they are withdrawing their endorsement and get off the "fluoridation bandwagon," soon, as it is about to crash.

Be a survivor, not a victim. Let the truth be known. An up-to-date list of organizations may be ordered from the National Fluoridation News.

If an organization of which the reader is a member appears on this list, check with the president of the local group and present a motion to the national organization—to be voted on by the membership to withdraw their endorsement.

Many members are not aware of their organization's endorsement.

Lincoln said, "Let the people know the truth and the country will be free." That is the Illinois Public Health Service's position on fluoridation in the cities of Grand Rapids and Newburgh in February 1945.

Many who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves and, under a just God, cannot long retain it."

Steelers defeat Warriors in traditional match up

GRANITE CITY — Darren DePew, Granite City North's catcher, had a hitting performance that best symbolized defensive struggle between North and Granite City South in Tuesday's intra-city baseball game.

In the second inning, the Steelers had the bases loaded with two out. Warrior shortstop Mill Roe threw DePew out at first to end that rally before a run scored.

In the fourth inning, North had runners on first and second with two out. DePew tried to bunt his way on, but South third baseman Rick Daily robbed DePew of the hit with an excellent defensive play.

DePew finally got the job done in the sixth inning. The junior hit a double which scored two RBIs with two out — which clinched the 4-1 victory for the Steelers on their home field.

"He's a good fast ball hitter, and we gave him a fast ball to hit," South coach John Modica said. "We were just lucky he didn't get us earlier than that did." Although DePew capped the game, ended it by catching a fly, and put the game in the position to clinch the game for the Steelers.

For the most part, Dak and his teammates held the Steelers in check. He gave up only three North hits and kept the ball in the field for most of the game.

He also gave up eight walks and two wild pitches which proved to be the turning point of the game.

In the second inning, he walked North's Carl Luehmann, who later scored on a wild pitch. Until the sixth inning, Dak was able to pitch around trouble.

Everything crumbled for Dak in the sixth inning. Mike Sullivan hit a routine infield pop fly, but Dak dropped the ball and Sullivan was on first.

"We're getting good play out of our two seniors in the outfield and our juniors are improving all the time."

Bob Stegemeier
Steeler baseball coach

Both Rod Hessler and Vince Mitchell walked to lead the bases. Sullivan scored on Dak's second wild pitch. DePew doubled to score Hessler and Mitchell.

"George could be the best pitcher in the area," Modica said. "He may be big to be." Modica said. "He has to keep his temper up for all seven innings. The little things seem to be affecting him a lot."

Stegemeier said, "I thought Dak threw a heck of a ball game. We have him in the game." The little things seem to be affecting him a lot."

North didn't win only because of the pitching lapses. Ray Takmajian, who pitched the entire game for the Steelers, held the Warriors to only four hits.

Takmajian rarely was in trouble on the mound. Tom Newton scored South's only run on Rick Daily's first inning double. From that point on, Takmajian and the Steelers allowed just one other. West had a second base hit.

"We knew we had to have a good game because we had to with a good pitcher out there," Stegemeier said. "This was important not because it was a North-South game, but because we had to win it."

"We like to beat good teams such as South."

What makes North recent success more surprising is that only two seniors, Sullivan and Luehmann, are in the line-up every game.

"We're getting good play out of our two seniors in the outfield, and our juniors are improving all the time. They're making a few errors, but the errors today were aggressive errors," Stegemeier said.

The Steelers were truly fortunate in their Monday victory over the Crusaders.

North scored all runs in the fifth inning when Althoff took a 6-0 lead, but the Crusaders fought back in the seventh inning and had the winning run on base before finally winning.

Steve Tritschuh and Sullivan both hit three run home runs for the Steelers in the fifth inning, and DePew, Scott Lewis and David Sheikh all had RBIs that inning.

Paul Barrington was the winning pitcher for North. Luehmann replaced him momentarily in the seventh, but Barrington pitched the final out with the bases loaded.

South edges Cahokia, Schnefke pitches out of trouble

CAHOKIA — If the Granite City South Warriors were to stay in contention for a share of the Greater East Conference baseball title, they had to beat Cahokia Wednesday — and that's just what they did.

The Warriors jumped out to an early 3-0 first inning lead against the Comanches, but it was a lead they never surrendered, as the Warriors went on to win the contest 4-1.

Two first-inning singles by John Linkert and Tom Newton and a sacrifice fly by George Jarvis provided the RBI's needed to give the Warriors the early lead.

The Warriors scored again in the fourth inning when Phil Daily batted in Mill Roe. Roe had reached on an error that resulted from a bunt.

The Comanches managed a run of their own in the fourth inning when Mike Millat singled in Greg Ellil who reached on a hit to centerfield.

It looked as though the Comanches would score more in that inning as back-to-back singles, followed by a walk, loaded the bases.

South's pitcher Joe Schnefke appeared to be in trouble. South's coach John Modica said afterwards if Schnefke had walked the second batter he would have replaced him with Dominic Griffin.

Schnefke calmed however, striking out Cahokia's Jim Burke.

A double play then caught the lead baserunner at home, and then went to first as Schnefke and the Warriors out of the inning.

"I wanted to leave Schnefke in there as long as possible," Modica said. "He got out of it. As long as he was making good I'm going to leave him in there."

In the final innings Schnefke "made good." He faced nine batters, and with the aid of his fielders, all were retired.

"Joe's a good kid. He's a real competitor," Modica said. "If I did have to pull him, I would have put him in good."

TENNIS DUO. South's John Menendez (left) and Matt Sheridan teamed to defeat Civic Memorial's first singles team in Monday tennis action. The duo finished second in the Belleville East Invitational Tennis Tournament recently, the best South finish ever.

GRANITE CITY — Coming off a second-place doubles finish in the prestigious Belleville East Invitational Tennis Tournament on Saturday, the Warrior netters waged war against Civic Memorial Monday and emerged 6-3 victors.

The victory adjusts South's record to 7-8 on the season. Civic Memorial, a member of the Mississippi Valley Conference, is 6-9.

Despite CM's defeat and losing record, Eagle's coach, Bob Friedline, is optimistic about his team.

"This is probably the best team I've ever had. We're a young team. We've got one senior, and one junior. The rest are sophomores and freshmen. We should be real strong in a couple of years."

The Warriors won their first three singles matches before allowing the Eagles a victory in match.

In first doubles competition, John Menendez defeated CM's Scott Housen in straight sets 6-0, 6-3. Menendez, who shut out Housen in the first set, toyed with CM's first singles player in the second. His unusual conservativeness gave him a turn the other way.

South's Matt Sheridan's mood was not as playful as he demolished Blake Gregory in straight sets 6-0, 6-4.

Charlie Miles, South's third singles player, defeated Tim Pruitt by identical scores in both sets: 6-3.

In fourth singles competition, Greg Johnson edged South's Kevin Dickerson in their three set match 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

In intervarsity singles competition, South's Tom Huff beat Steve Huff in two sets 6-2, 6-1.

In the sixth singles competition, South's Robbie Malench defeated CM's Andy Housen in straight sets 6-0, 6-4.

In first doubles competition, Sheridan and Menendez teamed to defeat CM's Housen and Matt Cruise 6-1, 6-0.

Miles and Dickerson outlasted CM's Gregory and Huff in second doubles competition to win 6-7, 7-5, 7-6.

In the final match, CM's Pruitt and Johnson defeated South's Malench and Jody Morelock 6-0, 6-1.

This afternoon the Warriors travel to Wood River to take on the Oilers in a 4 p.m. pairing. On Friday the Warriors are in Alton also for a 4 p.m. pairing against the Redbirds.

Menendez, Sheridan second

"I can't say enough about these guys. I'm really happy. They've done well."

Rich Harmon
Warrior tennis coach

BELLEVILLE — Granite City South's number one doubles team consisting of John Menendez and Matt Sheridan placed second in the prestigious Belleville East Invitational Tennis Tournament last weekend. Their finish was good enough to give the Warriors a fifth place team finish in the tournament.

O'Fallon won the tournament, followed by Belleville East at second, Belleville West and Mascoutah tied for third, followed by South at fifth.

Due to the size of the tournament, (six schools were represented) the three schools competition was held at Belleville East's courts, while much of the doubles tournament was played at neighboring Belleville Area College.

Menendez and Sheridan's finish is the best showing any team from South has had in the tournament, according to Warrior coach Rich Harmon.

Menendez and Sheridan made it to the finals by defeating two Belleville East teams and the Edwardsville team. In the final match, CM's Pruitt and East's Jeff Cox and Alan Farmer, but came out in the second set to win 6-3.

Unfortunately, the third set score resembled that of the first set as South's team fell 6-6, for a final Lancer victory 6-0, 6-6, 6-0.

"I can't say enough about those guys," Harmon said. "I'm really happy. They've done well."

TEAM RESULTS

O'Fallon first, Belleville West and Mascoutah tied for second, Belleville East (tie), GRANITE CITY SOUTH, Althoff, Collinsville, Centralia and Edwardsville (tie).

In the first round Menendez and Sheridan defeated the Tigers Jim Givens and Jim Belfield 6-4, 6-2.

In the second match East's Mike Davis and Craig Dickerson tied for South's duo 4-6, 1-6.

In the third match Menendez and Sheridan teamed to defeat the Lancer team of Chris Condon and Larry Schuchman.

A close South victory in the first set drained the Lancer team in the second set as Menendez and Sheridan went on to win 7-5, 6-1.

In the finals match Menendez and Sheridan started slow falling 0-6 to

Alton's Nessello and Tim Braisted defeated North's Jolly and Lipe 6-4, 7-5 in first doubles competition.

In second doubles competition, Whittington and North's Jim Rutherford tied for Alton's Ingram and Tim Hough 3-4, 4-5.

In the final match of the afternoon, Alton's Shane Volland and Gary Elliot defeated North's Mike Lauderdales and John Acosta 4-6, 0-6.

This afternoon the Belleville East team is in town to take on the Steelers. Matches begin at 4 p.m.

Sports of all Sorts

By Al Barnes
 Sports and the sporting of sports and activities have been a major part of my entire life. If pressed to make a decision I would be hard put to make a choice as to my favorite sport. I have enjoyed almost all sports,
 but lately I've been having some second thoughts.

Like say, last season's abbreviated major league baseball season during which my favorite team, the Cardinals, were dealt a chance to "win it all". And the ill-mannered tantrums
 on our team's court, man it's a real turn your stomach, but can those kids
 talk tennis.

Talking about tennis, in my 30 years covering sports
 never, in my wildest dreams, ever expected to see the mind-boggling high grade of tennis they are playing today. Day after day, week after week, month after month. It is really fantastic.
 The Tildens, the Budges, Vines, Trabert, et al. had streaks in which their shot productions, strokes, etc.
 almost made your heart
 stand still in admiration.
 But the kids today hit those shots as matter-of-factly as a person blinks his or her eyes.

And, while on the subject of tennis, a news release out of Columbia, Mo., in the past really disgusted me. Old Mizzen, despite the megabucks their football and basketball teams get through for the Tigers, athletic programs, an honest, straight-faced (and without blinking or blushing in shame), that the University of Missouri, Columbia, was: "cutting out its tennis program to save money."

What a croak, what a shame! And, what a mockery! And, not only did the coach, of course,
 want to be let go, but the administration that the action was taken to be able to hire another coach. I believe it was the news release said:
 "To save money."

And, I believe the last part of the story is true.
 I believe that the head of the university (Chancellor
 Uehling and athletic director Hart) was so afraid of the responsibility to see it that sports program at Columbia is a well-rounded

one and that their job is to see to it that the public gets what it deserves in that area.
 It is hoped that Dr. Bob Uehling and Mr. Hart will reconsider their plan to drop tennis. And, for sure, before she moves on to take over a similar job at the sprawling 10-campus University of California, she is one of 11
 finalists being interviewed
 for the job.

The Sports Side

Some tax shelters disallowed

The Internal Revenue Service continues to be alert to "abusive" tax shelters designed to defer or permanently avoid paying taxes, the IRS said this week.

Abusive tax shelters do not have any economic substance; their purpose is to avoid paying taxes by every other means the shelter attempts to provide tax savings that are much more than the investment.

According to the IRS, the abusive scheme involves the sale of Bibles. For example, a promoter sells a taxpayer a number of Bibles for less than their "retail" price, and advises the taxpayer to donate the Bibles to a church and claim a charitable deduction for the full retail price.

The taxpayer may properly claim a deduction for the fair market value, not the retail price, of the Bibles.

This means that if the promoter sells the Bibles for $5,000 although the claimed retail value is $10,000, the taxpayer may eventually mean a bill for back taxes, interest, and tax penalties.

Setting up this kind of trust could eventually mean a bill for back taxes, interest, and tax penalties.

Flight tax haven double trusts are another abusive tax shelter, the IRS says.

Promoters claim that by creating a double trust in a foreign country, U.S. tax liability can be greatly reduced or eliminated.

The taxpayer agrees to have the promoter create a trust in a foreign country, transferring to it the taxpayer's assets. Then a second trust is established in the same country, with the first trust named as trustee.

The first trust transfers the assets to the second trust, which then distributes income to the taxpayer and members of the taxpayer's family.

Because the taxpayer effectively controls the assets, the arrangement between the trusts has no effect for tax purposes, and will be disallowed by the IRS as a sham.

Taxpayers who have any questions concerning the laxation of trusts or related subjects may contact the IRS Forms and Tax Information number, 800-972-5400, or seek professional legal or accounting advice.

Signs urging carpooling are being erected here

New signs promoting carpooling as a way of saving money and relieving congestion on the roads are being posted this week throughout Madison, St. Clair and Monroe Counties.

The first local sign was erected Monday during a ceremony on Route 3 south of the Granite City Army Installation (depot), involving Dale Klohr, district engineer for the Illinois Department of Transportation, Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer and other officials.

The signs promote a carpool computer matching service, seeking persons who live and work in the same areas and share similar schedules as potential carpool partners. The number to call for the free service is 677-2777.

Names and phone numbers of potential carpoolers will be listed, who will be urged to contact each other and attempt to make carpooling arrangements. All information will be kept confidential, pledges the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, organizer of the carpool information project.

According to figures compiled by the Federal Highway Administration and U.S. Department of Transportation, the driver of a standard car who drives 20 miles, round trip, to work each day could save $1,113 a year by carpooling.

The figures indicate that

Variety of beans in local gardens

By CLIFF ROLL
Area Garden Advisor

Beans are an easy vegetable to grow in the garden. They give a very good return for the amount of effort required to grow them.

Beans require warm weather to grow well. Because of this, they are susceptible to frost injury. The best time to plant beans is when the frost is out and the soil is past and when the soil has warmed to 60 degrees F. or more.

There are many kinds of edible beans grown. The most common is the bush bean, which includes green and wax types. These are alike except for pod color.

Bush beans breed out just about the same, and grow to a height of 12 to 16 inches, depending on soil fertility and moisture.

Pods are borne in clusters.

Modern varieties tend to hold their pods well above the soil so they don't rot in wet weather.

Bush beans should yield about one pound of beans per foot of row. Thus, a 30-foot row should produce 30 pounds. It may require four to six pickings to harvest this many beans.

Vigorous, productive plantings can be maintained by making new plantings every three weeks. It takes about 50-55 days from planting time to harvest.

In recent years, bean breeders have produced many bush bean varieties resistant to bean mosaic, a virus disease that can be transmitted by insects. For this area, Astro, Contender, Tendergreen, Provider, Harvester and Blue Lake are recommended. Cherokee, Golddrop and Kinghorn are suggested wax varieties.

Bush lima beans grow slightly taller than bush snap beans, and spread wider. Short runners are occasionally seen. Pods are borne on fruiting stems that stick up above the foliage.

Lima beans are disease-resistant and should give you steady harvests for 45 to 60 days. Plant about 8 ft. of row per family member.

after the soil is warm. Where summer days and nights are warm, bush lima beans will mature in 6 to 75 days.

Varieties for this area are August, Henderson Bush, August Green, Fordhook 242, and Thaxter.

Pole beans are well-adapted to small gardens because they can be trained vertically on a fence, trellis or pole. They also produce over a long period of time if given good cultural care.

Kentucky Wonder is still a good pole bean variety, but it sometimes gets infected with bean disease.

If a fence or trellis is absent, you can build your own structure. Poles are most commonly used to make a trellis. Use a square topless style—with seeds planted at the base of each pole. The height of the structure depends on the length of the poles, but it should be 5 to 6 feet.

All beans for snapping should be picked when the pods are young and succulent. Lima beans harvested for green beans should be picked when the seeds are only half filled but before they turn white.

For fence beans, let the pods mature on the plants, but harvest them before the pods get so dry that they shatter.

Strawberry flower clusters that have flowers with black centers or dead fruits have been damaged by one or more of the frosts or freezes of the season.

Most gardeners didn't see injury from these low temperatures, but strawberry flowers are sensitive to freezing temperatures.

The straw used for mulching strawberries tends to cool very rapidly on clear, calm nights and this creates a cold environment around the flowers.

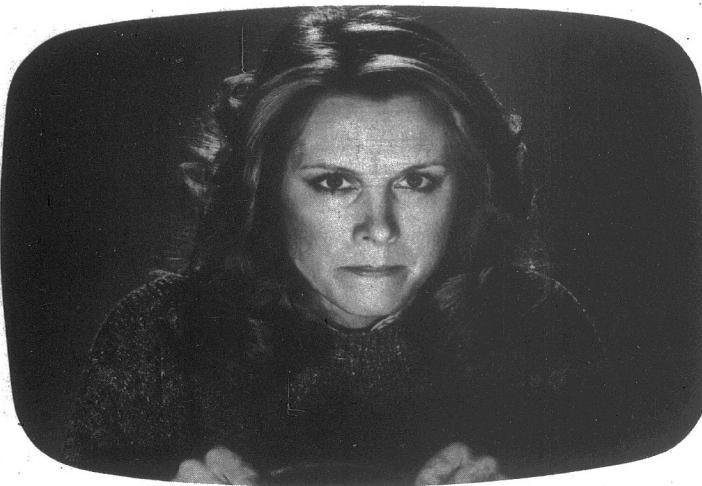

There is no control for the black flowers once they are visible. It is not disease, so spraying won't do any good.

However, as we approach the end of the season, disease control on the surviving berries and leaves may be needed, especially if the weather turns to the rainy side.

MAY CUT PAPERWORK FOR LUNCH PROGRAM

A proposal to cut paperwork in schools through a program being issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It would ease federal record-keeping and reporting requirements for school food authorities and give states more flexibility in administering nutrition programs.

The proposed rule would end the requirement that schools make up the cost of meal for their school breakfast, school lunch and other non-profit school food service operations. Schools would maintain only the revenue and expenditure records to document the cost of meals and the non-profit status of their food service programs, saving seven million hours of staff time.

Alternative care is urged for more mental patients

More mentally disturbed Americans are being institutionalized in mental and psychiatric hospitals than ever before, despite the fact that deinstitutionalization has been national policy for almost two decades—and in spite of indications that treatment is more effective and less costly in alternative settings.

In the current issue of the American Psychologist, Charles A. Kiesler, Ph.D., of the Carnegie-Mellon Institute points out that there are about 1,800,000 admissions to mental institutions in the U.S. each year. Seventy percent of all national funds spent on mental health go to hospital care.

Unintentionally, Medicaid has become the largest single mental health funding program in the country, Dr. Kiesler says; the specific services that will be paid by Medicaid often determine the level and type of care given to the mentally disabled, and Medicaid pays primarily for institutional care.

A policy of "non-institutionalization" should be considered to determine and develop effective means of preventing or avoiding first admission to mental hospitals, Dr. Kiesler recommends.

Studies show mental institutions tend to undercut patients' ability to deal competently with the world outside the institution, and often cut patients off from contact with relatives and other meaningful personal contacts.

The stigma attached to having been a patient in a mental institution may also interfere with new learning and a sense of confidence necessary to produce change in lifestyles, Dr. Kiesler believes.

Reviewing 10 studies in which patients with serious mental illnesses were assigned either to institutions or to alternative care, Dr. Kiesler finds a greater likelihood that hospitalized patients, once they are discharged, return to mental hospitals than that alternative care patients will ever be admitted to mental hospitals at all.

The studies that were reviewed, tested many types of alternative care, including small homelike group facilities, hostels, several programs of outpatient treatment, and individual psychotherapy, and community-living approaches. In the latter, patients are trained in daily living activities such as laundry, shopping, cooking, grooming, cleaning, and using public transportation.

Each study compares the outcome of such alternative care with the outcomes of patients in institutions, not just in terms of psychiatric evaluations but also in terms of subsequent employment, school performance, maintenance of long-term relationships and other measures of independent living.

In almost every case, the alternative care showed more positive effects than institutional care. Dr. Kiesler states, "In no case did the care alternative care exceed that of inpatient care."

The best predictor of (mental) hospitalization is prior hospitalization," Dr. Kiesler adds. "Data of the 10 studies show that the hospitalization of mental patients is self-perpetuating."

"And we institutionalize too many people," I respond with a sigh.

"Not only is it unnecessary to hospitalize many of the people we are now, it is clear that they could be treated in alternative settings more effectively and less expensively."

Inpatient care could be reduced dramatically, he concludes, while increasing the effectiveness and quality of other meaningful personal contacts.

The stigma attached to having been a patient in a mental institution may also interfere with new learning and a sense of confidence necessary to produce change in lifestyles, Dr. Kiesler believes.

Reviewing 10 studies in which patients with serious mental illnesses were assigned either to institutions or to alternative care, Dr. Kiesler finds a greater likelihood that hospitalized patients, once they are discharged, return to mental hospitals than that alternative care patients will ever be admitted to mental hospitals at all.

The studies that were reviewed, tested many types of alternative care, including small homelike group facilities, hostels, several programs of outpatient treatment, and individual psychotherapy, and community-living approaches. In the latter, patients are

Coal exports break records

Boosted by record-shattering coal export traffic, Norfolk and Western Railway reported the highest first quarter net income in its history.

The railroad earned $89 million in the three months ended March 31, or $2.70 a primary common share, a 13 percent increase over the prior first-quarter record set in 1981 of $78.6 million, or $2.43.

Operating revenues were a record $461 million, an eight percent gain from $446 million. Railway operating expenses in the quarter were $388 million, up nine percent from $380 million a year earlier.

During the first quarter, we originated 10.1 million tons of coal for export," said Robert B. Clayton, president and chief executive officer.

"We surpassed our first quarter record of 9.8 million tons."

Including coal that originated on other railroads, NW transloaded 11 million tons in the first quarter, compared with 10 million tons a year earlier.

Clayton cautioned that because of seasonal factors and some softening of demand for coal abroad, NW's export coal traffic in the coming quarter "will remain strong but will almost certainly not reach the record first-quarter level."

Domestic coal traffic in the first quarter—both to steelmakers and to utilities—was below last year. Tonnage originated for the steel market was 4.1 million tons, up from 3.5 million in 1981, while utility origination were 8.7 million tons, compared with 7.2 million.

Merchandise traffic, reflecting the widespread recession in the U.S. economy, continued at low levels. "The whole spectrum of our economy is depressed right now, and I doubt there will be any pickup in the fourth quarter," Clayton said.

"We will benefit from our consolidation with Southern Railway to form the Norfolk Southern system, and the services we will be able to offer, we will be able to attract some additional traffic from our competition, both rail and truck."

NW did see improvement in the first quarter in food products and grain traffic, and motor vehicle traffic was up slightly.
